“ To the Family,
Deepest condolences on your losses.
I lived across the street from Chuck on 12th. street . More than once he came over to remind me I had left my car lights on in that kind quiet manner of his. Always a smile and a friendly greeting. I spoke with your parents a few times over the years too.

Remembering you in thought and Prayer.

“ I first met Chuck at a young age and he quickly became my first love. We lost touch over the years but then got the chance tp reconnect as I just happened to take our dog to the vet where he was working. I'll never forget that big happy smile of his that could always brighten your day. So thankful that we had the opportunity to reconnect over the years. You'll always have a special place in my heart.

“ Im just now getting the news today, and im honestly in shock. Chuck was a customer of mine back when he had his Honda Ruckus, and every time he would bring it into the shop, he would always be real cheerful and happy, and he was the same way whenever we would see each other in public. He was one of the nicest guys ive ever met, and he will truly be missed. My condolences to his family and friends. The world lost a heck of a guy.

“ Chick came to work for me a few months ago after he left the Veterinarian position. I liked him so well, he was not only a great worker but a happy and very pleasant person. I enjoyed his sunshiny personality and will sure miss him so much.

“ To Stan, Chad, and Chet, I am so very sorry for the loss of dear Chuck. As my son's friend, he was always welcome in our home. His intelligence and zany sense of humor were always uplifting! I hold all of you in my heart.

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with you during this difficult time. My husband was good friends with Chuck. He worked at our vet office. Anytime you would see him he had a smile on his face. So sweet & nice. He always looked forward to seeing our Shepherds. When he knew we were getting a new Shepherd he couldn't wait to see him or her. Sometimes he would get us right back even if we weren't next in line (it was because he couldn't wait to see the puppies & play with them) lol.. It won't be the same walking in there & not seeing him & his big bright smile. Love & Light - Steve & Tracey Eldridge

“ Two memories of Chuck.

The first time we met I was a young, new supervisor and I was put in charge of a small group of intimidating looking guys who looked like they may be ready to test my fragile authority. As it turned out, they were all really nice but Chuck stood out for his kindness and work ethic. He went from working for me to working with me and he advanced. As we worked together for about 3 years, Chuck became a dear friend. I move on and so did he but every time our paths crossed Chuck would brighten up the place with that smile and gentle spirit that made us all glad he was in our lives. The other involved Chuck and our Great Dane, Tucker. They got to know one another when Chuck was tasked with trimming the nails on this 125 lb. dog that hated a manicure. We would have to muzzle Tucker and Chuck would get down on his knees and trim his front nails. Tucker was so stressed that he began spew, a lot, of saliva out of his mouth and to where? Right down that balled head of chuck's! We apologized and tried to pull Tucker back but Chuck just laughed and said it was fine. Chuck thought it was hilarious and after easing our minds, so did we. Tucker, not so much.

We will miss Chuck so much but we also consider ourselves blessed to have known him. He brought a joyfulness with him that I'm glad he shared with me.

“ I have so many great memories of Chuck. I met him in the early 90's as my band and his became good friends. So many pranks, adventures, super soaker fights, paintball, always just a great friend

Probably the kindest person I've had the pleasure of knowing. My prayers and condolences are with the family.
